

NEW BOOKS IN YOUR CHURCH LIBRARY

September 2011

HEAVEN IS REAL, by Don Piper, gives us lessons on earthly joy and hope from the man who spent 90 minutes in Heaven.

NEW DAY, NEW YOU, by Joyce Meyer, has 366 devotions for enjoying everyday life.

If you ever wanted to know more about the background and differences in the various Bible translations, THE COMPLETE GUIDE TO BIBLE TRANSLATIONS, by Ron Rhodes, is the book for you.

In I'M TRYING TO SIT AT HIS FEET, BUT WHO'S GOING TO COOK DINNER?, Cathy Lechner shows us, with humor, how to walk in peace as the Holy Spirit reveals God's purposes for our lives.

Patsy Clairmont offers 14 short stories to bolster our spirit in STARDUST ON MY PILLOW.

THE CROSSROAD, by Beverly Lewis, is the sequel to THE POSTCARD. Journalist Philip Bradley is drawn back to the Amish people of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and blind Rachel Yoder in this story.

For readers who prefer larger print, some of the Love Inspired series and Love Inspired Suspense series are now in larger print. In THE BABY'S BODYGUARD, by Stephanie Newton, a Florida cop and a caring child services worker try to uncover the truth about the kidnapping of a toddler.

These will be in the new books section in your church library.
